iting me, my apartment, the whole town, is a sort of nastiness, a crankiness occurring when suffering from lack of sleep, a sour stomach from the inability to eat anything from the sweaty refrigerator, or from the inevitable distress of giving up cigarettes because the air quality is so bad.

This awful disease undoes me. I am not the crying kind, but I am crying five times a day now. The letter that didn't come from my girlfriend in New York, the one the mailman obviously saw was for me and ripped up; those phony telephone calls charged to my number by some cruel person; the gas station which shuts down just as I pull in; the squashed chipmunk on the road; the Log and Line not having any more blueberry muffins — occasions all, to cry.

My mother has to start accepting collect calls home again, although I have long since considered myself beyond submitting to this practice. (I find out that my roommate's mother has been accepting similar tearful calls home from her daughter.) Will I finally be grown up when my mother doesn't accept the charges, when I learn to handle the heat in a more civilized fashion? Do those things ever happen? I don't think so.

When winter comes I will be saner, the bad ghosts will be exorcized from me with the first Canadian blast. Then I'll be able to let the Scooter sleep on the bed with me again.

Recreation Report

HERPOLOGICAL EXHIBIT

On Tuesday, Aug. 14, at 10 a.m. at the Osgood School Playground there will be a herpological exhibit and lecture presented by Bonnie Main of the Massachusetts Herpological Society. There is no charge for this program and the public is cordially invited. Playground programs will be held as usual.

BAND CONCERT

The fifth in a series of six concerts on the common will be held Tuesday, Aug. 21, at 7:30 p.m. at Town Common, weather permitting. The 30-piece South Shore Concert Band, under the direction of Richard Whitmarsh, will be performing such numbers as Born Free, highlights from Godspell, The Music Man, and Dixieland selections. The public is cordially invited to the free concerts. Please bring blankets or folding chairs.

MOVIE OF THE WEEK

Remember: Thursday, Aug. 9, "A Hard Day's Night", 7:30 p.m., Town Hall Auditorium.

On Thursday, Aug. 16, at 7:30 p.m., Town Hall, another "Beatles" film, "Yellow Submarine," will be shown. A unique and refreshing animation classic, starring the voices of the famous pop singing group "The Beatles". Songs, jokes and puns combine with surreal pop-art drawings forming the background for a story in which "The Beatles" try to save Pepperland from the Blue Meanies. A film for all ages. It remains imperative that younger children be accompanied by an adult or older responsible sibling. This evening movie ends at 8:55 p.m. and all children should be picked up promptly at that time.

Swimmers Sunk Twice In Scituate, Duxbury Meets

Cohasset Swim Team members had little time to notice the heat of the past week — they were busy competing in two separate meets.

In the contest with Scituate, team members who won two first places were Jamie Hoffman, Jonathan DeLima and Michael Abbruzzese. Those who won individual events were Janet Carlson, Julia Sechen, Bob Durkin, Polly Linden, Michael Cuning, Stephanie McAdams, John Jackson, Sean Cuning, Sara Tague, Eric Karcher, Billy McKenna and Ian Knox.

The final score was Scituate, 231 and Cohasset 173.

In the Duxbury contest,

Stephanie McAdams took three first places. Swimmers who won two blue ribbons were Steven Camardo, Todd Fitzpatrick, Tina Birman, and Jennifer Ralff.

Team members who came in first in an individual event were Caroline Boonner, Tim Chamberlain, Jill Nedrow, Brends Birmann, Jane DeLima, John Jackson, Debby Andrews, Cathleen Buckley, Nancy Walls, Kimberley Harrington, Matthew Buckley, Emily Tague, Karen Ekberg, Joy Ditmar, Cindy Spooner and Jonathan DeLima.

The final score was Duxbury, 301.5, Cohasset 229.5.

Historical Society Schedules Final Clearance Yard Sale

A final clearance yard sale of all donated items to the Cohasset Historical Society, including some recent gift items, has been scheduled by Mrs. E. Lawrence Parker, Jr., president, for Saturday morning, August 11, 9 a.m. to noon, at the Lothrop House, 14 Summer Street, Cohasset.

"We have interior work on the Lothrop House planned for the immediate future and we must clear out all the items that have been donated to us for flea markets and yard sales," Mrs. Parker said. "All items have been especially marked down to go and there will be exceptional opportunities for bargains in very desirable articles. No reasonable offers on anything will be refused."

Articles for sale will include tools, draperies, furniture, collectibles, books, kitchenware and small appliances.

Story Hours Continue At Pratt

The Paul Pratt Memorial Library will continue its series of family story hours on Monday, August 13 at 7:30 p.m. in the children's room. School-aged children and their parents are invited to attend.

Ms. Anne Hayden, Children's Librarian from Ventress Public Library in Marshfield, will tell various Appalachian tales from collections of Jack Chase. Ms. Hayden has conducted and participated in story hour series of her own in Ventress and is an accomplished teller of tales. The program will end at about 8:30 p.m.

Card of Thanks

*Perhaps you sent a lovely card,
Or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a floral piece,
If so, we saw it there.*

*Perhaps you spoke the kindest words,
As any friend could say;
Perhaps you were not there at all,
Just thought of us that day.*

*Whatever you did to console our hearts,
We thank you so much whatever the part.*
